As per the instructions of the Department of Higher Education, Government of Punjab, the 115th birth anniversary of Sardar Bhagat Singh was commemorated in Amar Shaheed Baba Ajit Singh Jujhar Singh Memorial College, Bela on 28 September 2022. The programme commenced with a cycling rally by the students and faculty members of the college. It was a step to spread awareness among people and particularly the youth about such a great freedom fighter. It was accompanied by the lectures of Assistant Professor Harpreet Singh Bheora and Dr. Surjeet Kaur from the Department of Punjabi. They enlightened the students with the revolutionary ideas of Bhagat Singh and threw light on his personality. They encouraged the students to take his ideas further and imbibe his qualities in their life. A Declamation competition was also organised on the topic "Bhagat Singh: The Jewel of Indian Freedom Struggle." All the students put forward their views in a very vivid manner. Afterwards, a documentary was shown to the students on the life of Bhagat Singh. The documentary chronicled the life and times of Bhagat Singh along with his contribution to the Indian freedom struggle. Also, other departments of the college organised various activities to pay tribute to the iconic and revolutionary Bhagat Singh. The department of Humanities and Commerce organised a Declamation competition, poem-recitation, essay writing and poster-making competition in this light. Principal, Dr Satwant Kaur Shahi graced the venue of the competition with her presence. She motivated the students to have a vision like that of Bhagat Singh and contribute to the progression of the nation. The Information Technology society of the department of Computer organised a poster-making competition to mark the birth anniversary of Bhagat Singh. The students showcased their creativity and patriotism by making posters. The programme ended with the distribution of laddu among students, faculty members and non-teaching staff.
